CHICAGO KIDNAPPER FIGHTS HER GUARDS.

When Sentenced for Her Crime She Cursed, Screamed and Acted

Like a Maniac.

Chicago, July S.—Ann Elizabeth Ingersoll, when sentenced to the penitentiary to-day for the kidnapping of Gerald Lapiner, fought like a maddened tigress in the court room, scratched and bit at her custodians, and struggled frantically all the way back to her cell in Jall, accompanying her blows and bites with screams and curses.

She was finally carried to her cell after having severely brulsed several guards. John Collins, who was sentenced at the same time, made no scene. Both were given indeterminate sentences.

Committee in Chicago, July 20, will bring the factions together. I believe that Hill-gold will great a doubtful, because the plutocrats of this State are, seeking to defeat the will of a majority wants a compromise platform; but the West and South wont stand for it. "I am sure that Massachusetts will support Mr. Bryan. There has been some talk of George Fred Williams as a caudicate for Vice President. If he is nominated Massachusetts will, of course, fall into line. "Kentucky surely will support Mr. Bryan, It is not in love with Gorman, and the people of the State do not know Van Wyck from Tom Collins, Van Wyck is only a line."
